

In light of the Centennial Celebrations for Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF), the WILPF Sacramento-Sierra Foothills Branch presents...

Women's History Month Celebrations

Every Thursday evening in March
From 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm
At Colonial Heights Library
4799 Stockton Blvd.
Sacramento, CA 95820

March 5, 2015, Thursday: Film Showing

- Introduction to your host organization WILPF
- Showing of "History Revisited," a short film on the National Women's History Project and their goals for initiating March as Women's History Month
- Showing of "The Role of American Women in the Work of the Nation," a short film on the history of women's rights in the work place and the positive impact on the economy
- Discussion to follow

March 12, 2015, Thursday: Film Showing

- Showing "Femme: Women Healing the World" Part 1 - Influential women discuss history, science, politics, religion, entertainment and solutions to the multiple crises we face throughout the world. "This film focuses on a feminine approach with nurturing energy to inspire a new hope for the future."
- Discussion to Follow

March 19, 2015, Thursday: Film Showing

- Showing "Femme: Women Healing the World" Part 2 -
- A continuation of the March 12 film showing (see description above)
- Discussion to follow

March 26, 2015, Thursday: The Life & Art of the Great Isadora Duncan - A Living History Dance Performance -

Lois Flood, founder of Diablo Dance Theatre and Ballet Petite of Danville, ballet master, dance teacher and peace activist will tell the stories of Isadora Duncan, a revolutionary dancer and writer, through the arts of dance and poetry. Isadora Duncan (1877-1927) is world renowned as a dancer, a symbol of revolution and women's emancipation.

<http://diablodancetheater.com/>

Questions? Please call Pennie at 916-456-1282

Support Us! Join Us!
<http://sacwilpf.org/>

Labor Donated